

CENTRE FOR CIVIC GOVERNANCE

2010 PUBLICATIONS CATALOGUE

GOING FOR GREEN LEADERSHIP SERIES

For the Love of Nature: Solutions to Restoring Biodiversity is Volume 4 in the Centre for Civic Governance's Going for Green Leadership series. This is a collection of remarkable biodiversity leadership stories to inspire action.

Read about people behind initiatives like:

- Portland's City Repair
- Ottawa's Biodiversity Blitz
- Vancouver's Stanley Park Ecology Centre

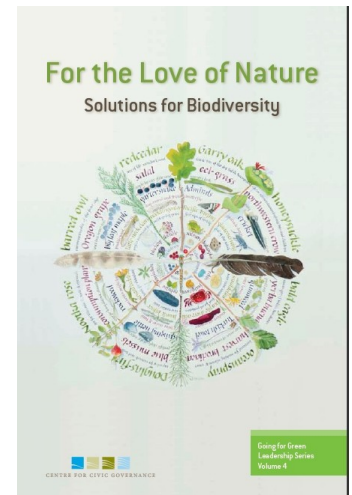

And about key legislative and planning tools such as:

- Conservation Covenants
- Living Forest Communities
- The Natural Areas Protection Tax Exemption Program

For the Love of Nature is illustrated by Briony Penn.

ISBN: 978-0-9784309-8-6

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

Through the Green Glass: Climate Change Tools for Education Leaders is Volume 3 in our Going for Green Series Leadership series. This book introduces an array of tools and resources from knowledgeable and passionate experts. While these stories reflect British Columbia, the ideas and information are widely applicable.

In this book you will find:

- A climate change primer - the dominant changes in the climate system, including the atmosphere, ocean, snow and ice
- Compelling arguments for action, and
- Real model and tools for change.

ISBN: 978-09784309-3-1

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

To order publications on-line go to civicgovernance.ca/about/our_publications or email salbertson@columbiainstitute.ca

CENTRE FOR CIVIC GOVERNANCE

GOING FOR GREEN LEADERSHIP SERIES

Leadership Makes a Difference: Leading Edge Policy and Inspirational Initiatives for Communities provides wisdom from locally-elected leaders on forging innovative, homegrown methods for making sustainability a reality.

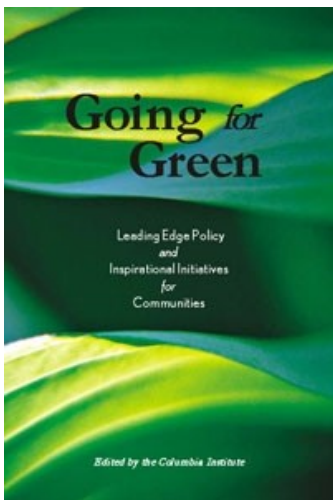

In this book you'll learn from local communities as they "go for green" - from

- Powerful (and often underused) tools for local governments looking to create affordable housing
- Squamish's global warming pledge, to
- Ucluelet's official community plan that won the United Nation's top prize, to
- Making school buildings and curricula sustainable

Leadership Makes a Difference is Volume 2 in our Going for Green Leadership series

ISBN: 978-0-9784309-0-0

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

Going for Green: Leading Edge Policy and Inspirational Initiatives for Communities is the first publication in the Going for Green Leadership series. There's a green revolution underway in community leadership. This book captures key strategies and tools.

Included are initiatives such as:

- Building green schools
- Community-wide composting
- Implementing ethical sourcing and other leading-edge policies; and
- Using a sustainability framework to guide community decision-making

ISBN: 10:0-9781918-0-3

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

All publications are $15.95, except "Carbon Offsets," our pocket resource guide which is $9.95. These prices include shipping and HST. We offer a 10% discount on orders of 10 or more publications. If you purchase our publications on-site, you can save the shipping costs and the prices are $12.95 or $6.95 for "Carbon Offsets."

We encourage you to visit our website: www.civicgovernance.ca. Along with regular updates and reports you will find downloadable PDF files of our publications that are available free of charge.

CENTRE FOR CIVIC GOVERNANCE

INNOVATIVE STRATEGIES SERIES

Unlimited Vision: Ideas for Building Inclusive Sustainable Communities is a "best of" collection of stories featuring courageous leadership, community building and legislative tools in action. You will find proven leadership practices and fresh ideas, along with inspiration for creating a more sustainable and equitable future.

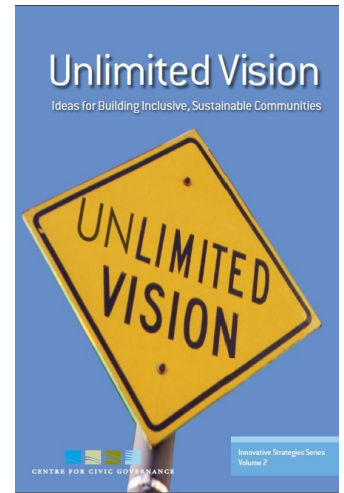

Included are key ideas for:

- Progressive governance in a conservative environment
- Working with staff to achieve your goals
- William Lyon Mackenzie's rules for democracy, and
- First person stories of achievement and thoughtful essays on big ideas.

Unlimited Vision is Volume 2 of our Innovative Strategies series.

ISBN:978-0-9784309-6-2

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

Innovative Strategies: Ideas for Sustainable Communities is a collection of articles by prominent politicians, environmentalists, and community leaders, demonstrating how to turn progressive ideas into action.

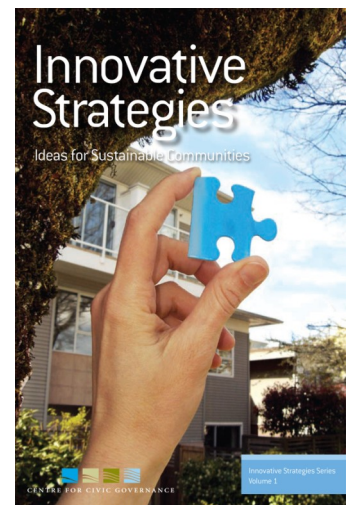

In this book you will find:

- How Leaf Rapids became the first town in North America to ban the use of plastic bags
- Pre-eminent community organizer Garland Yates' wisdom for engaging citizens in the community
- Economist Hugh MacKenzie on municipal financing

Innovative Strategies in Volume 1 in our Innovative Strategies series.

ISBN: 978-09784309-3-1

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

To order publications on-line go to civicgovernance.ca/about/our_publications or email salbertson@columbiainstitute.ca

CENTRE FOR CIVIC GOVERNANCE

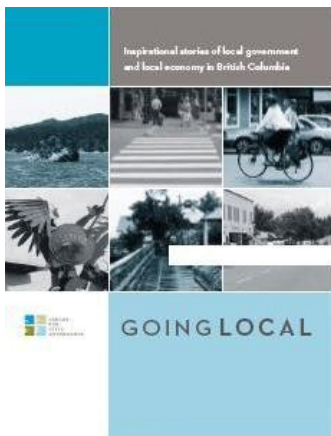

OUR OTHER PUBLICATIONS

Carbon Offsets: The Real Deal? provides background information on offsets, the downsides and benefits of their use, basic features of credible offsets, rating systems and a list of resources to source further information.

ISBN: 978-0-9784309-4-8

$9.95 (Shipping included!)

Going Local— Inspirational Stories of Local Government and Local Economy in BC showcases 12 stories of local governments that are working to improve their local economies and enhance the quality of life in their communities.

As communities face the future, local government leaders are asking themselves what they can do to protect and strengthen their local economies. This publication provides the information and case studies to imagine and work towards building more resilient, self-sufficient local economies.

ISBN: 978-09784309-3-1

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

Public-Private Partnerships: Understanding the Challenge explores the growing body of research on P3's and sheds light on this complex world. On balance, our research indicates that P3's can have a significant downside for the public interest. A must-read for communities contemplating P3's.

(Updated June 09 and New French Translation Available)

$15.95 (Shipping included!)

All publications are $15.95, except "Carbon Offsets," our pocket resource guide which is $9.95. These prices include shipping and HST. We offer a 10% discount on orders of 10 or more publications. If you purchase our publications on-site, you can save the shipping costs and the prices are $12.95 or $6.95 for "Carbon Offsets."

We encourage you to visit our website: www.civicgovernance.ca. Along with regular updates and reports you will find downloadable PDF files of our publications that are available free of charge.